In addition to this application form, the following materials must be submitted to Margie Seskey electronically (as Word or PDF documents) at seskeyma@mwri.magee.edu.

- Cover letter that includes a statement of your research interest, short-term goals for fellowship, time frame for training, a career development plan, milestones, and long-term goals.
- Curriculum vitae.
- A short, NIH-formatted style application of up to two pages (Arial 11 pt font, 1/2 inch margins) that includes the following sections: abstract (200 word limit), significance, innovation and approach. All must be included within the two-page limit. In addition, up to 15 references may be cited on a separate page.

- An applicant's one-page summary of a career development plan for the fellowship. This is central to the application, and should include classes, specialized coursework, training, or other activities within MWRI or elsewhere. These should be detailed across the fellowship's two-year timeline. The text should delineate how the classes or courses will bolster the training experience and prepare the applicant for a successful career in basic, translational, or clinical research.
- Letter from the planned mentor, which includes a brief summary of the proposed research project and its fit within the mentor's ongoing research program, a mentorship plan, and a proposed funding plan in case the fellowship is not granted. Specialized coursework, training or other activities should be specified within the mentorship plan.
- Two letters of recommendation (in addition to the MWRI mentor letter), addressed to the MWRI Postdoctoral Fellowship Review Committee, should be emailed directly from the referee to Margie Seskey (seskeyma@mwri.magee.edu).

DEMOGRAPHIC INFORMATION FOR NIH REPORTING

As an institution that receives federal funds for trainees, MWRI is required to report demographic information regarding our applicants and participants to our training programs. Provision of the following information is voluntary. Applicants and trainees are strongly encouraged to provide this information; however declining to do so will in no way affect their appointments. Racial/ethnic/disability/background data are confidential and all analyses utilizing the data will report aggregate statistical findings only and will not identify individuals.
